

Air1 and K-love serve my local community by offering an alternative broadcast of positive God-inspired music and discussion that cannot be found anywhere else on the FM dial. My community would be void of any commercial-free, Christian broadcasting, if these stations were not available, which serves and satisfies the public good.